

“As a small business and government contractor, PreVeil is the perfect solution for transferring sensitive information and large files business-to-business!”

Secure

“Super simple to use and the recovery process is stringent, so we feel secure.”

Simple

“We particularly like how simple it is to invite contacts into the secure environment, while maintaining compliance and enabling productivity!”

Compliant

“PreVeil is an intuitive way for small businesses to comply with ever-evolving cybersecurity regulations. Highly recommend!”
