What Self-Attestation Already Costs

DOJ has collected $28.8M from defense contractors over cybersecurity claims, all of it under self-attestation.

Date	Company	Settlement	What DOJ alleged
Jul 2022	Aerojet Rocketdyne	$9,000,000	Misrepresented cybersecurity compliance
Oct 2024	Penn State	$1,250,000	Misstated control timelines; weak POA&M follow-through
Mar 2025	MORSECORP	$4,600,000	Non-compliant email host; no SSP; false SPRS score
May 2025	Raytheon / RTX / Nightwing	$8,400,000	CUI on a non-compliant system, 29 contracts
Jul 2025	Aero Turbine / Gallant Capital	$1,750,000	CUI accessible to unauthorized foreign persons
Sep 2025	Georgia Tech Research Corp	$875,000	No anti-malware; no SSP; SPRS score of 98 claimed
Dec 2025	Swiss Automation	$421,234	Inadequate protection of CUI technical drawings
Jun 2026	LOGZONE	$507,144	Self-scored 110. DIBCAC scored the same system -170.
Sep 2026	Honeywell Aerospace	$2,042,518	800-171 requirements unmet on a covered network

Source: DOJ settlement announcements, 2022-2026. Allegations only; no determination of liability.

LOGZONE self-scored 110. DIBCAC scored the same system -170.